

AmcoGiffen appoints new procurement and supply chain director

April 12, 2022

As part of AmcoGiffen's commitment to collaborating with key supply chain partners, the company has appointed Ben McCluskey into the newly created role of procurement and supply chain director

Ben has 14 years' experience in the construction industry having held roles at J Murphy & Sons, Balfour Beatty, Laing O'Rourke and Carillion. He is also a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply. The role sits on the senior management team, demonstrating the level of commitment from AmcoGiffen to their supply chain management strategy.

Ben will create and deliver a national procurement and supply chain management strategy, providing a first-class service for the business, its clients and supply partners. The strategy will focus on collaborative and solutions based relationships to drive innovation and sustainable procurement practices. Ben is keen to engage with new and existing partners to understand their needs and gather feedback on how we can improve and deliver our procurement and supply chain strategy.
