

AmcoGiffen issues casting call for exciting new graduate scheme

December 22, 2021

AmcoGiffen is launching an exceptional development programme, providing ten lucky graduates with first-rate career opportunities and progression.

It's a two year, structured programme providing learners with a six month business placement, functional rotations, supported career pathway, links to professional bodies, structured development and mentoring and an excellent benefits package.

It is a golden opportunity for promising graduates to take their first steps in the industry.

AmcoGiffen is looking to recruit special candidates for several career opportunities including:

- Engineering
- Quantity surveying
- Design
- Health and safety
- Business development
- HR

The positions will be located in Cumbernauld, Barnsley, Pontyclun and Highbridge and will include travel to various offices and operational site locations throughout England, Scotland and Wales.

The programme will provide recruits with a comprehensive understanding of a fast growing; self-delivering, civils, building, engineering, and maintenance and design contractor. Recruits will gain valuable experience working across rail, environment, highways, energy and infrastructure and both public and private sector with a team of exceptional people.

Post completion graduates can expect to progress to a range of roles such as:

- Project or site engineer
- Assistant quantity surveyor or quantity surveyor
- Design engineer
- Health and Safety advisor
- Pre-contracts or proposals writer
- HR advisor

AmcoGiffen is an equal opportunities employer and this opportunity is open to anyone with a minimum 2:2 BSc / BA in a relevant subject area and willingness to live and work by their SPIRIT company values. Safety | Professionalism | Integrity | Respect | Innovation | Teamwork

The scheme will be open for applications from January 2022 keep an eye on their website for more details

www.amcogiffen.com/careers