

BAM makes a new management appointment

October 22, 2021

Richard Prime has been appointed managing director, major projects of BAM Nuttall Ltd.

The Executive Board of Royal BAM Group nv appointed Richard, and his position was effective from 18 October.

Following a 20-year career with the company, Richard will lead BAM Nuttall's teams as they work on major infrastructure projects in the UK. With clients, Tier 1 joint venture partners (JV), and an innovative supply chain, these projects combine BAM Nuttall's extensive experience and expertise to support delivery of:

- Thames Tideway West, BAM / Morgan Sindall / Balfour Beatty JV
- Hinkley Point C Earthworks and Ground engineering, BAM / Kier JV
- HS2 Enabling Works, BAM / Ferrovial / Morgan Sindall JV;
- HS2 Main Works, BAM / Ferrovial / Kier / Effiage JV
- TfL Step Free Access, upgrading for three stations, BAM / Taylor Woodrow JV
- TfL Silvertown Tunnel, BAM / Ferrovial / SKEcoplant JV
- Brisbane Cross River Rail – building four new metro stations and their connecting tunnels, BAM / CPB / Ghella / UGL JV.

The management of BAM Nuttall now consists of Ian Parish (managing director), Martin Bellamy (managing director, regions), Alan Cox (managing director, transport), Richard Prime, (managing director, major projects), Ian Phillpot (finance director), Richard Reddell (commercial director), Richard Lewis (people and performance director) and David McGowan (business excellence director).

Image credit: BAM