

BAM Nuttall announces new Interim MD

September 14, 2021

The Executive Board of Royal BAM Group nv has appointed Ian Parish as Interim Managing Director of BAM Nuttall Ltd, effective 1 October 2021. Ian Parish rejoined BAM Nuttall in 2020 as Managing Director, Major Projects, and has more than 37 years combined experience during his three periods with the company.

Adrian Savory, BAM Nuttall's current Managing Director, joined the business in 1995 and is stepping down from his position on 30 September 2021 to pursue other opportunities outside of BAM.

Ruud Joosten, CEO of Royal BAM Group, said: "We would like to thank Adrian Savory for his service and commitment to BAM over the last 26 years. He has held various roles in the company during this time and contributed to its success and growth. We wish him every success in his future career."

As of 1 October 2021, the management of BAM Nuttall will consist of Ian Parish (Interim Managing Director), Martin Bellamy (Managing Director, Regions), Alan Cox (Managing Director, Transport), Ian Phillpot (Finance Director), Richard Reddell (Commercial Director), Richard Lewis (People and Performance Director) and David McGowan (Business Excellence Director).
