

Celebrate diversity and the next generation of rail at the Trailblazers Networking Reception, 11 July 2019

June 25, 2019

Rail Business Daily readers are invited to join the Railway Industry Association (RIA), Civil Engineering Contractors Association (CECA) and the Young Rail Professionals (YRP) for an evening of celebration and networking.

The Trailblazers Networking Reception bring together young rail professionals with experienced industry leaders to enable them to learn from each other, engage in the latest discussions about skills and celebrate a vibrant and diverse rail workforce.

The Reception will take place on 11 July 2019 at the KIA Oval, 5:30 - 8:00 pm.

Florence Eshalomi, member of the London Assembly since May 2019, will give a keynote speech, together with RIA, CECA and YRP representatives.

If you are over the age of 30 we invite you to bring your colleagues who are under 30 to ensure we have the right blend of youth and experience.

Organisations who have confirmed their attendance include:

Please do come and join us for a drink and canapes at what will be a unique and exciting networking event in a fantastic location!
