

Costain appoints new General Counsel and Company Secretary

June 22, 2022

Costain has appointed Nicole Geoghegan as general counsel and company secretary, replacing Sharon Harris who is leaving the business in July.

Nicole will start and join the Executive Board on 1 July 2022.

Nicole has extensive infrastructure experience, covering the full asset lifecycle, and is an expert in public sector procurement and managing risk. Prior to this role, Nicole was General Counsel and Company Secretary for High Speed Two (HS2) Ltd and before joining HS2 Nicole worked for a number of industrial and engineering businesses, beginning her career at a top Australian law firm.

- Costain picks its new energy director
- Alstom celebrates as trains and tech serve the public on the new Elizabeth line
- HS2 contractors providing support to jobseekers with disabilities and long-term health conditions

Alex Vaughan, chief executive officer said: “Nicole brings valuable understanding and experience from a customer's perspective, alongside expertise in contracts, governance and risk management. She has a track record of improving revenue and profitability and I am delighted to welcome her to our team. Sharon leaves us after almost two years and I would like to thank her for the significant contribution that she has made and wish her a happy retirement."

Nicole Geoghegan commented, "I am excited to be joining Costain at such a transformative time for the company, industry and wider society. We have a huge opportunity to make infrastructure delivery more economic and efficient, to improve people's lives and the environment, and I am looking forward to using my experience in support of this change."