

Extended scheme to turn oysters into pearls for charity

November 26, 2019

Railway Children has a partnership with London Underground that means it's easier than ever to give to the charity - every time you travel. With a scheme to donate all leftover Oyster Card credit directly to help in the fight for street children around the world being extended to include Heathrow terminals, taking the tube never felt so good...

Read more here:

<https://www.railwaychildren.org.uk/news/2019/10/heathrow-helps-turn-oysters-into-pearls-to-support-vulnerable-children/>