

Launch of new website signals the next chapter for long-established safety wear provider SIS Industrial Supplies

September 29, 2020

Long-established PPE and safety wear provider SIS Industrial Supplies has revealed its new website, showcasing its vast range of products, vital in keeping workers safe.

There are a range of special offers to mark the launch of the new online showroom <https://www.sisupplies.co.uk/>, as the company extends its reach nationally. The company has two centres in Glasgow and Crewe to achieve this. It follows months of research into the best products and competitive pricing.

Linda Strang, head of SIS Industrial Services, said: “We have worked around the clock and put in months of research to create a website that takes our online presence to the next level.

“It is easy to use and a wonderful platform to find out more and purchase the vast range of products we have available.

“The aim of the new website is to further cement our position as the go-to company for businesses requiring industrial equipment of any kind.”

The website complements its well-stocked shop and warehouse based at its Glasgow Head Office, featuring an extensive Pulsar range, along with Gore-Tex and Leo Workwear.

The range of branded clothing products and equipment are specially designed for people working in the rail, construction, marine and ports, highways, engineering and manufacturing sectors.

Linda added: “With the challenges being faced because of the COVID-19 restrictions we thought now was the perfect time to create a new website, to allow businesses to have easy access to our wide range of everything from boots to helmets and goggles to high visibility clothing.

“To mark the launch of the website we have a series of special offers, including, for a limited time, 10 per cent off the full Gore-Tex range. We have also created special bundle packs, including a PPE starter bundle, to help you out in getting the right equipment to keep staff safe.

“With winter on the way, now it’s the perfect time to take advantage and get winter ready.”
