

Nominations for the 2023 everywoman in Transport & Logistics awards now open

January 6, 2023

The 2023 everywoman in Transport & Logistics Awards, launched to inspire more women to progress careers in the industry, are open for nominations until 6 February 2023.

Now in their 16th year, the awards celebrate the vital contribution women make to transport and logistics showcasing progression, accomplishments and increasing avenues of opportunity within a traditionally male-dominated industry.

From aviation and shipping to road and rail, the awards are free to enter and is the perfect opportunity to uncover vital role models to inspire women across the globe to explore the many and varied career opportunities in Transport and Logistics.

Click here to nominate.

Who is it for?

The awards are designed to be as inclusive as possible and are open to women at all stages of their careers, from those who go above and beyond the call of duty in their role, to leaders in organisations.

Whether you're entering yourself or nominating woman or man you know who inspires you, there are loads of great reason to enter the awards:

- Receive nationwide recognition and high-profile press coverage for both the individual and their company's achievements
- Boost your personal brand credentials and inspire the next generation of talent
- It's free to nominate yourself or someone you know

New for 2023

Sustainability Champion awarded to a woman or a female led team who is leading change and making an exemplary contribution to sustainability and environmental protection within a transport or logistics company

- Do you know someone who deserves to be recognised? Nominate them today. To find out more about attending the Awards or how to get your company involved click here or email contact@everywoman.com

