

Rail Aid Gala Auction goes live with over 100 lots!

November 5, 2021

Last night at the RIA Annual Dinner, Dyan Crowther (CEO of HS1 and Vice Chair of the Rail Aid 2021 Committee) launched the Rail Aid Gala Auction, sponsored by Colas Rail. This was a fantastic event and Rail Aid is glad to be RIA's chosen charity of the year. In 2020, Rail Aid's auctions raised over £170,000 for Railway Children and this year, the team hopes to raise even more!

The Gala Auction has over 100 lots catering to all budgets and tastes including luxury goods, rail memorabilia, books, artwork, collectables, electrical items, experiences, holidays and mini breaks that are all up for grabs.

Gala Auction lots include:

- o An exclusive ride on Crossrail for 4
- o Dinner with the Rail Aid Ambassadors
- o Advertising on the UK rail network, London Underground and Trainline

o Spa days, tea at the Savoy, and gifts from Hotel Chocolat, Rituals, Fat Face, Oliver Bonas, and Harry Potter

o Mini breaks in the Peak District, Pitlochry, and London, and on the Belmond Pullman and Caledonian Sleeper

o And for rail buffs, lots include behind the scenes tours, cab rides, simulator experiences and an ultra-cool Philippe Starck Eurostar Chair

o And many more

The auction closes on the evening of Thursday 25 November 2021, so get bidding now at <https://givergy.uk/railaid/>
