

Railway Benefit Fund calls for teams to sign up for September Golf Day

July 4, 2022

Industry charity the Railway Benefit Fund are hosting their popular Golf Day on Thursday 1 September 2022 at Hendon Golf Club, London. This will be the charity's 18th Annual Golf Day, this year sponsored by Abellio Ancillary Services.

The RBF Golf Day is a brilliant opportunity for company team-building or a unique day out for business clients. The day comprises full use of the greens at Hendon, 18 holes, competitions and the chance of winning the RBF Cup. Teams will be greeted with refreshments at Hendon Golf Club in the morning before heading to the greens. After a fantastic day of golf, teams will enjoy a delicious three course meal before the winners are announced and the charity raffle is drawn.

Ian Jeffrey, Ancillary Services Director at Abellio UK, said: "Abellio Ancillary Services have been attending the RBF Golf Day for many years, and I am delighted that in 2022 we are sponsoring the event. Not only is the day brilliant for rewarding staff and networking, but most importantly it raises money for this vital industry charity.”

The cost of a team of four is £700. All money raised from the RBF Golf Day will go directly towards supporting railway people and their dependants through difficult times. RBF offer financial support to current, former and retired railway workers for issues such as debt, redundancy, illness and domestic abuse.
