

RIA Annual Conference announced for 2024

March 27, 2024

The Railway Industry Association (RIA) has announced that its award-winning Annual Conference & Dinner will take place on 6-7 November 2024, at the Leonardo Royal Hotel, London.

This year's conference focuses on the theme 'A fresh start for UK rail?' and will feature a large interactive exhibition area and spotlight pitches where new services and products will be showcased. The evening programme includes networking drinks, dinner and entertainment.

The conference attracts some of the most senior industry figures. This year's lineup includes:

- Andrew Haines OBE, Network Rail CEO.
- Sir John Armitt CBE FREng FICE, Chair of the National Infrastructure Commission.
- Sir Jon Thompson, Executive Chair of HS2.

Further speakers will be confirmed in due course.

RIA Marketing & Events Manager, Grace Smithen, said: "This year's Annual Conference and dinner will provide attendees with the opportunity to hear from a top-level range of speakers and excellent networking opportunities as well as convivial evening entertainment. In addition, we are excited to see the return of the spotlight sessions following last year's success."

A limited number of Early Bird tickets for the conference will be available to purchase until Friday 28 June.
