

RSN 2022 – Have we got a show for you!

June 17, 2022

Rolling Stock Networking is set to deliver a packed event, with 150 superb exhibitors, industry leading speakers in the RBD IConference and five extra events taking place throughout the day.

Organisers have described this year's show as the "best yet", promising a diverse and comprehensive attraction for both exhibitors and visitors.

The sell-out show which returns to Derby Arena on 7 July aims to bring the rail industry together and offers a unique one-day networking opportunity.

Organisations including Aegis, CAF, Vivarail, Harting, Loram, Westermo, Gemini Rail, I M Kelly R&A, Televic GSP, Chrysalis Rail Services, RIA, Train FX, FISA, Infodev, DC Airco, LPA Group, and many more are all exhibiting.

The IConference

Rail Business Daily has this week announced an outstanding line-up of industry leaders for its IConference.

This year, with the theme Inspiring Rail People by Inspiring Rail People, the IConference is designed to Inspire, Inform, Impact and offer Insight to help you grow your business.

And with seven speakers in procurement roles from several well-known rail companies, the presenters will undoubtedly have something of interest for everyone.

The IConference takes place upstairs above the main exhibition hall, there is no need to book, simply turn up for your chosen speaker(s).

New supporting events for 2022

Outside of the main exhibition, there's also a rich programme of supporting events.

This year, Rail Business Daily's RBD Community will host a comprehensive business support area as an industry first for RSN 2022; offering delegates and exhibitors the opportunity to access high quality rail business support and advice.

Its 'I zone' – Inform, Inspire, Impact – business support area will take place in the auditorium area above the exhibition floor.

Individual appointments can be booked for one-to-one meetings with key members of the team, offering an opportunity to access high-quality rail business support and advice.

The Rail Forum will be holding its Annual General Meeting at the show, which is ideal for its members who will be able to visit the show and take in the conference and the other events, prior to the AGM, all in one day.

The Railway Industry Association (RIA) will also be running their popular Meet the Buyer event. The application process is open to RSN exhibitors and to RIA members. The closing date for applications is today, Monday, 20 June at 5pm.

The Department for International Trade will also host an event with Bill Smith – an International Trade Advisor specialising in advanced manufacturing and rail. Bill will be at the show to discuss your experience of exporting and how you would like to start or increase exporting.

There's also dozens of great prizes up for grabs in a raffle in aid of The Railway Children. Exhibitors and visitors can purchase raffle tickets from the Railway Children stand in the foyer.

The unmissable RSN will be held at Derby Arena on 7 July from 9.30am until 3.30pm. You can register to attend for free here.
