

SEP Rail Services Offers Exciting New Opportunities for Railway Professionals

May 11, 2023

The UK's fastest growing rail surveying firm, SEP Rail Services has experienced tremendous growth under the leadership of Rikki Morrow, who has served as the company's managing director for the past six years. Under Rikki's leadership, the business has transformed into a multi-million-pound company, employing over 55 staff members, and earning recognition from major industry players such as Colas Rail, Amey, GMS, Keltbray, and Network Rail.

This growth has created exciting new opportunities for potential employees, with a range of open roles currently available. These include a number of Lead Surveyors, a Senior Lead Utility Surveyor, Operations Manager, and more. Prospective employees have the chance to become a part of SEP's story, with potential for career advancement and professional development included as standard.

SEP Rail Services is dedicated to providing a positive work environment for its employees. They offer a comprehensive range of benefits and rewards packages, including discounted gym memberships, internal and accredited training programs, highly competitive salaries, and promotion prospects. Additionally, the company understands the importance of work-life balance, often offering multiple work locations and hybrid or remote work options depending on the role requirements.

Rikki Morrow, the MD of SEP Rail Services, expressed excitement about the company's growth and commitment to supporting its employees' professional and personal goals. "We are thrilled with the growth that SEP Rail Services has experienced over the past five years," said Morrow. "We believe in providing our employees with a work environment that supports their professional and personal goals, which is why we offer competitive salaries, comprehensive benefits, and flexible work options. We're proud to be part of the UK's fastest-growing independent rail group, and we look forward to building on our success in the years to come."

SEP Rail Services is also pleased to be working with RBD Rail Recruiter, a specialist job board for the railway industry. The agency offers a dedicated platform for railway job seekers to find exciting new opportunities and for employers to recruit top talent.
