

Sign up for Rail North dinner event

March 10, 2022

There's still time to sign up for the Rail North: Levelling up the Region Dinner, happening at The Queens Hotel in Leeds on 6 July.

The black-tie networking event is designed to put professionals in the eyeline of major decision makers in the sector — who are responsible for the likes of the £3bn Transpennine Rail upgrade and the £100m Darlington station expansion.

A number of leading rail speakers have been announced, including Martin Tugwell, CEO of Transport for the North; Hannah Lomas, principle programme sponsor at Network Rail; David Horne, managing director of LNER and Tim Wood, rail director for Northern Powerhouse.

To sign up, click here.