

Speakers announced for RIA Annual Conference and Dinner

October 11, 2022

The Railway Industry Association's (RIA) flagship annual conference and dinner is taking place on Thursday 10 and Friday 11 November, at the Park Plaza London Riverbank.

Confirmed speakers include Network Rail chair Sir Peter Hendy CBE and Network Rail chief executive Andrew Haines OBE, HS2 chief executive Mark Thurston, UKHospitality chief executive Kate Nicholls OBE, conference host TV presenter Sameena Ali-Khan, and many more.

There will be 300 senior railway players attending, debating the salient issues of the day, international opportunities, and the future of transport, making it cleaner, more diverse and better connected under the main theme of 'Growing rail in a year of transition'.

There will also be a Dinner with entertainment, including live music.

If you have any enquiries about the conference, please contact the Events team at events@riagb.org.uk and on 020 7201 0777, and you can get more information about the event here.
