

Taziker Announce New CEO

September 22, 2020

Taziker, the multi-disciplinary specialist contractor, is very pleased to announce the appointment of Steve Corcoran to the company and the Board as Chief Executive Officer, effective from the 1st October 2020.

Steve has a distinguished career in the construction sector, operating at board level in both public and private businesses, including nine years as CEO of Speedy Hire plc. More recently Steve has been advising on a number of investment opportunities in the UK and Europe.

Steve joins Taziker to lead its growth strategy, as a leading provider of protective coatings, structural refurbishment and strengthening projects for the UK's critical transport, utility, industrial and marine infrastructure.

Adrian Ringrose, Chairman said: "On behalf of everyone at Taziker I am delighted to welcome Steve to the Group. He brings a wealth of leadership experience, commercial insight and business know-how that will benefit the business and the team enormously as we pursue our ambitious growth strategy."

Rayhan Davis, on behalf of Freshstream, the majority owner of Taziker, said: "We are very pleased to have been able to attract a CEO of Steve's calibre and track record to lead the business. As shareholders, we are committed to growing the business strongly over the coming years, and welcome Steve as an integral part of this growth plan.”

Steve Corcoran said: “I am delighted to be joining Taziker at this exciting time. Taziker is a long established, well respected specialist contractor, led by an experienced management team and supported by highly skilled personnel across the business. As an organisation, Taziker is held in high regard by its clients and I look forward to working with them and the team, as we look to grow and develop the business to meet its true potential.”

Photo credit: Taziker

For today's rail news from railbusinessdaily.com click here.